

Mildred Huie Wilcox is the owner of Left Bank Art Gallery on St. Simons Island. She has the following advice for getting motivated to write the perfect thank you note: "Sit somewhere with a beautiful view in your home and away from your usual surroundings so that your mind is free of all the little things on your to do list. Think of the people and picture them in your home having dinner with you and looking at their gift."

Her note to a friend of the groom's parents thanking them for a wedding gift is a wonderful example of how to inject personal touches that make the note special to the recipient.

Dear Mrs. Callaway,

Thank you so much for the lovely silver candlesticks you and Mr. Callaway sent us. I can't tell you how delighted I am. They will look beautiful on the mahogany dining room table Aunt Marion gave us. Bob likes them as much as I do. We would love for you and Mr. Callaway to be among our first dinner guests as soon as we are settled in our new home.

Thank you again from both of us for your lovely wedding present.

Sincerely,
Mildred Huie Wilcox

The End

Dear Jane,
Thank you so much for inviting us to your home for your upcoming party. We know we would have a great time as you always are the greatest hostess. We must sadly decline, however. My best friend's only daughter is getting married that weekend (out of town) and we have already committed to that event. Thank you again for including us in your plans. We will miss seeing you.
