Wedding Show

The 2009 Golden Isles Magazine Bridal Fair and Fashion Show drew a crowd of approximately 500 guests. Fifty-two vendors offered diverse services and merchandise to help make the “big day” perfect for wedding couples. Caterers, restaurants and bakeries shared delicious hors d’oeuvres, cakes, and decadent desserts. The fashion show was the highlight of the afternoon, with models showing off The Lady in White, Gentlemen’s Outfitters, Evelyne Talman, Spaulding’s The Pilates Loft to a standing room only audience. While the wedding gowns and tuxedos were the main attractions of the fashion show, trendy attire for attendants, classic looks for the mother of the bride, and fun new styles in honeymoon casual wear were also big hits on the runway.
